

Andrzej Rzońca, PhD, a member of the third session of Poland's Monetary Policy Council. Former Vice President and Director of a Research Department of FOR Foundation (2007-2010) and advisor to the President of the National Bank of Poland (2004-2007). He completed internships at the World Bank and the European Central Bank. Laureate of the Leopold Kronenberg Foundation award, the most prestigious title in the field of economics in Poland. Currently, he collaborates with the FOR Foundation and works as an adjunct professor at the Warsaw School of Economics.