

Jerzy Pruski, PhD, President of the Bank Guarantee Fund. Former member of Poland's Monetary Policy Council and the first Deputy of the President of National Bank of Poland, where he was responsible for maintaining financial stability. He acted as an NBP representative in the Economic and Financial Committee (EFC). As a member of EFC's Ad Hoc Working Group on EU Financial Stability Arrangements, he was one of authors of Report on developing EU Arrangements for Financial Stability, accepted by ECOFIN Council in September 2007.

Former Vice President of LG Petro Bank, President of PKO BP, President of the Supervisory Board of PKO TFI and a Member of the Supervisory Board of Bank Pocztowy.

Since August 30th, 2010 he has been a representative of the President of the Republic of Poland at the Polish Financial Supervision Authority. Since October 2010 he has been the Economic Advisor to the President of the Republic of Poland. On October 25th, 2012 Jerzy Pruski was elected as the Chair of the Executive Council and the President of International Association of Deposit Insurers (IADI) for a three-year term.